

Memorials of Friends and Neighbors

Herman Roseman - 99 Brook Hills Circle

Sadly, Herman Roseman passed away on October 27th after having lived in Brook Hills with his wife for four and a half years. He had worked as an investment counselor and portfolio manager for over 40 years with the same company. Herman was born and raised in Philadelphia and loved to travel. Family and friends report that he was extremely well-respected and well-liked in both his business and social community. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Cathy, as well as four children (three living close by and one living in Cincinnati) and nine grandchildren.

Monica Warner - 9 Audrey Lane

Monica suddenly passed away on August 7, 2009. Monica lived with a unbridled zest for life. She was an indefatigable champion of the Carcinoid Cancer Foundation, which was her husband, Richard's professional life's work, and truly impacted the lives of 10s of thousands carcinoid patients. An extraordinary cook, a wine connoisseur, a pilot, a skier, dancer, diver, computer aficionado, serious amateur photographer, gardener, a devoted mother and grandmother, a committed sister, aunt, cousin and friend. Words shared by one of the many eulogizers at her funeral: "A life well lived".

Tricia Eigo - 94 Brook Hills Circle

Tricia and I moved to Brook Hills in the Spring of 1990. It was the best move we ever made and we had 19 great years here together. In April of 2009 we learned that Tricia's illness was terminal. At that time, Tricia and I, along with our daughter, Susy, and Naomi Safian formed a committee of four to plan for the inevitable. Tricia died on August 14. I was truly overwhelmed by the heartfelt expressions of sympathy and condolence that were extended to our family by our many friends and acquaintances in the Brook Hills Community. Thank you one and all. Brook Hills is a great place to live!

Arthur Immerman - 61 Brook Hills Circle

1/1/1920 - 8/19/09 Arthur always said that he lived a "charmed life". Until moving to Brook Hills he lived all his life in Mamaroneck and then Larchmont. He was a CPA who did not retire until after his 86th birthday. He was truly a "gadget and electronics guy", who as a kid built his own radios. He loved life, his family, people and Tova his dog who now resides with a step-daughter in Massachusetts. His wife, Roz, planted a maple tree in his memory along Brook Hills Drive overlooking the tennis courts.

Arthur Weininger - 75 Brook Hills Circle

Another loss in our Brook Hills community is Arthur Weininger who, after a long illness, passed away on December 1, 2009 at the age of 89. He and his wife of 62 years, Annette, had lived in Brook Hills since August of 1996. Many knew him as "Bud" and he was considered a gentle-man by those fortunate enough to know him. Arthur served in World War II, including in India and was in Shanghai when the war ended. He also was in the Foreign Service which took him to Washington, The Hague, Mexico City and Madrid. He loved to travel, but also loved to read and had many other interests as well. He had been a Vice President at Merrill Lynch. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter and eight grandchildren.

Barbara Passloff - Another recent sad loss in the Brook Hills Community is Barbara Passloff who died on Tuesday, December 15th after a long and valiant battle with cancer. Barbara lived at 65 Brook Hills Circle and is survived by two sisters, four children and six grandchildren. She was originally from Columbus, Ohio and lived for a time in Richmond, Virginia where she is buried next to her husband who predeceased her. Professionally, Barbara had worked in Human Resources but for a hobby she made incredible scrapbooks which are cherished by her family. She was well-known for her creativity in this endeavor and many others.
